

January 19, 2018

Freshman Humanities

Mr. Reiff

Aim: "The more they kept the fire hidden, the more it burned"

Pyramus & Thisbe

Do Now

---

FIND THE SUBJECT

In the Metamorphosis by Ovid, Apollo and Daphne are shot with arrows by Cupid

Most of the stories in the Metamorphosis do not have a happy ending.

***SCHEDULE NOTES***

---

All Essay Rewrites Must Be Submitted By Tuesday

Vocabulary Exam on Jan 30, 2018

If I don't have your link, please make sure
you send it ASAP

Still Missing 6 of them

Pyramus & Thisbe

---

Where have some of you heard these names before?

"The Most Lamentable Comedy and Most Cruel Death of Pyramus and Thisbe"

Please take the next 10 minutes to read the story of Pyramus and Thisbe

Lines 55-166 in Book 4

How does this reflect the theme of metamorphosis?

Pyramus & Thisbe

---

Can anyone summarize the story?

Why does this story sound so familiar?

What does this story share with Apollo & Daphne?

Discussion

---

Why do you think Ovid's characters never fall in love in live happily ever after?

Discussion

---

What is Ovid trying to tell us about change?

Homework

---

None